

Do you like to experience different cultures?

Do you want an international university experience?

Do you need help finding a university that is the right fit for you?

The Council of International Schools can help you find your path! CIS has over 500 university members in 26 countries throughout the world, including many in Asia, Australia, US, UK and Europe who represent top-tier education institutions with an international orientation. They want to know what you are looking for in your next educational step!

Ask your university or guidance counsellor about the CIS University Connection Registry or visit www.cois.org/ForStudents.
